5. Now that the Mr Doraswami Ayr has been appointed to advocate the place of Public Prosecutor which has fallen vacant has to be filled.

6) Three applications have been received for the place & perhaps other advocates may also apply, if ~~further~~ applications are invited or a little time is given.

7) In some respects it would be desirable to select for the place an intelligent junior advocate who will stick to the place for some years. The pay is scarcely attractive enough for a senior man with a well established practice. Besides the three who have applied, the name of Mr Vg. Varadachar may be suggested

"Magistrates & Sessions Judges should remember that they hold responsible offices of great trust under the Government, that they receive their salaries as the consideration for the honest performance of the duties imposed upon them, and that their appointments to such offices do not confer upon them a right to apply as law that which has no other basis than their own fancy as to what the law ought to be. It is the conscience of a magistrate or of a Judge forbids him to apply the law as it is or to make himself to the best of his ability acquainted with the law or procedure to be applied in a case before him, that same conscience should suggest to him that he should vacate his office and seek a livelihood in some other walk of life".

Sir,

Sometime ago the Government requested the Chief Court of Mysore to invite applications from among the members of the Bar and to select an eligible person for appointment as Assistant Public Prosecutor for the Bangalore Sessions Division. The Chief Court accordingly invited applicants and I was one of them. After a due consideration of the relative merits I learnt that the Chief Court was pleased to recommend me for the proposed appointment. Subsequently I read in one of the local papers that the appointment was deferred consequent on the contemplated re-establishment of the District and Sessions Courts in the Bangalore Division. I beg to submit for the consideration of the Government that I am always ready and willing to place

As for my qualifications I am a graduate in the University of Bombay and obtained the degrees of the Bachelor of Science and Law. I am quite at home in the dialects of Tamil, Telugu Canarese, Mahratti, Gujerati and Hindi. I have been at the Mysore Bar for over ten years practising in all the Courts. Regarding my fitness and capacity I am unable to recommend myself, but leave the Government and the public to judge. However I can assure the Government once again that in the discharge of a public duty I shall never desert the post but always do the work conscientiously to the best of my ability and judgment so as to merit the trust the

S i r,

As I learn that the place of the Public Prosecutor of Nandidroog division is to fall vacant shortly owing to the present incumbent being appointed Government Advocate I beg to offer myself as a candidate for the same and bring the following facts for favour of the kind consideration of Government.

2. I have been a member of the Bangalore Bar for over 8 years and during this period I have conducted several important criminal cases both on the Sessions side of the Chief Court and in the District & Sessions Court, Ashtagram division and several courts subordinate thereto.

3. It may look presumptuous on my part to speak of my abilities as a criminal lawyer and successes in several important and sensational criminal cases both in Nandidurg and Ashtagram Divisions.

4. I learm that I was one of 3 candidates recommended by the District Magistrate on a former occasion for the public prosecutorship when Mr. C.S. Dorasawmy Iyer was appointed Public Prosecutor Mr. Subbannah, the other candidate having declined to accept the post.

5. The Government of His Highness the Maharaja are graciously pleased to recognise family considerations by giving suitable appointments to educated sons of high officers who have rendered long and faithful services to His Highness' Government.

6. My father Mr. K. Ramas amy Iyengar M.A., is about to retire after putting in a service of nearly 37 years.

7. It may not be out of place to mention here that I was appointed as a Special Public Prosecutor in an important murder case on the recommendation of the District Magistrate, Bangalore, subsequent to the recommendation set out in para 4 above.

8. On the ground of merit as evidenced by the recommendations already before the Government and on family considerations, I beg you to be so good as to place my application before the Government for their kind and favourable consideration.

A. Venkatachala Iyengar

Generally, we are under the impression that a man's duties are public, and a woman's private. But this is not altogether so. A man has a personal work or duty, relating to his own home, and a public work or duty, which is the expansion of the other, relating to the state. So a woman has a personal work or duty, relating to her own home, and a public work and duty, which is also the expansion of that.

Now the man's work for his own home is as has been said, to secure its maintenance, progress, and defence; the woman's to secure its order, comfort, and loveliness.

Expand both these functions. The man's duty as a member of a commonwealth, is to assist in the maintenance, in the advance, in the defence of the state. The woman's duty as a member of the commonwealth, is to assist in the ordering, in the comforting, and in the beautiful adornment of the state.

What the man is at his own gate, defending it, if need be, against insult and spoil, that also, not in a less, but in a more devoted measure, he is to be at the gate of his country, leaving his home if need be, even to the spoiler, to do his more incumbent work there.

And in like manner, what the woman is to be within her gates, as the centre of order, the balm of distress, and the mirror of beauty; that she is also to be without her gates, where order is more difficult, distress more imminent, loveliness more rare.

And as within the human heart there is always set an instinct for all its real duties, — an instinct which you cannot quench, but only warp and corrupt if you withdraw it from its true purpose; as there is the intense instinct of love,

I, the undersigned, most respectfully beg leave to state as follows. —

I passed the B. L. Degree Examination of the Madras University in 1901 and have been practising as an Advocate of the City Court and of the Resident's Court in Bangalore.

During all this period I have been a candidate for a Munsiff's appointment, and though I was sent to act as a Munsiff on two occasions, and on a few other occasions recommended for a Munsiff's place, I was not fortunate enough to get it.

Now I understand that the post of the Bangalore Public Prosecutor will become vacant on the 1st proximo.

In consideration of the above said facts I most respectfully pray that the Government may be so generous as to confer on me the said Public Prosecutor's appointment when it falls vacant

3. It may look presumptuous on my part to speak of my abilities as a criminal lawyer and successes in several important and sensational criminal cases both in Nandidurg and Ashtagram Divisions.

4. I learn that I was one of 3 candidates recommended by ~~the District Magistrate~~ yourself on a former occasion for the public prosecutorship when Mr. C.S. Dorasawmy Iyer was appointed Public Prosecutor Mr. Subbannah, the other candidate having declined to accept the post.

5. The Government of His Highness the Maharaja are graciously pleased to recognise family considerations by giving suitable appointments to educated sons of high officers who have rendered long and faithful services to His Highness' Government.

8. On the ground of merit as evidenced by the recommendations already before the Government and on family considerations, I beg you to be so good as to place my application before the Government for their kind and favourable consideration.
